

THE GRADUATE MODEL OF THE BACHELOR OF EDUCATION IN THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM 6B01505 – GEOGRAPHY

Training of geography teachers who are competitive, in demand for the region, have high social and civic responsibility, and are able to carry out professional activities in conditions of updated educational content.

- education (geography teacher in secondary school, lyceum, gymnasium, college);
- management (Department of Education, administration, gardening organizations, ecology);
- in science (scientific research organizations in the field of natural sciences, geology, general earth science, geomorphology, ecology, landscape studies, soil geography, ethnography, etc.).

Bachelor's Degree Graduate Model

A bachelor's degree graduate must have professional competencies corresponding to the types of professional activities focused on the bachelor's degree.

Research activities:

- research scientific and methodological literature;
- to study and summarize the best pedagogical experience of teaching geography;
- conduct educational experiments by introducing their results into the educational process.

Scientific and production activities:

Communication skills: conducting a dialogue with students, colleagues, parents in professional activities, having cooperative relationships with social partners, the ability to work in a team.

Practical use of information and communication technologies in professional activities.

Project activities:

Be able to prepare modern pedagogical technologies taking into account the peculiarities of the educational process, educational tasks and personal development;

Application of theoretical and practical knowledge to solve educational, practical and professional problems in the field of geography; pedagogical skills necessary for independent further education in the field of geography; knowledge and understanding of facts, phenomena, theories in the field of geography and the complex. the interdependence between them; an understanding of principles and a culture of academic integrity;

Scientific and pedagogical activity:

He is able to form and realistically assess the goals of personal development, as well as expand the level of intellectual development of students.