

Graduate model of the educational program 6B01402 - "Music education"

The main purpose of the educational program

Training of a highly professional, tolerant, cultured, highly qualified music teacher working in institutions of competitive secondary and secondary specialized, professional education.

General cultural competencies of the graduate:

1. the role of a teacher in school conditions in the formation of general cultural competencies is considered; He is able to form and objectively assess the personal level of aspiration, and also has the skills to increase the level of intellectual development of students;
- 2 methodology of integration of interdisciplinary knowledge (didactics and a special field of Higher education); the essence of a special field in integration with innovative technologies for the formation of professional competencies of students and researchers;
- 3 methods and principles of integrating social values into the formation of professional qualities of future specialists; - ways to form a positive self-esteem of students, motivation to learn languages, civic identity and linguistic tolerance;
4. uses basic methods, methods and means of transmitting, storing and processing information; has computer skills, including global computer networks.

Subject competence is characterized by the following facts and:

1. knows the features of secondary education, has the means to implement continuity in the education of children of different ages;
2. knows the theoretical foundations and technologies of teaching schoolchildren;
- 3 is able to apply knowledge about the theoretical foundations and technologies of teaching the subject, knows the methods of developing the subject skills of schoolchildren, knows the methods of developing subject interest and using subject knowledge in everyday life;
- 4 apply the acquired theoretical knowledge in practice;
- 5 apply modern computer technologies.