

The Department of Pedagogy held a meeting of the "Young Teacher" club.

The Department of Pedagogy at Shymkent University held a regular meeting of the "Young Teacher" club. The event included a discussion on the topic "My Profession – My Future," during which students shared their thoughts on the importance of the future teaching profession, professional responsibility, and the requirements of modern education.

The participants emphasized the importance of choosing a profession and discussed teachers' professional competencies, personal development, and innovation in education.

The goal of the meeting was to strengthen students' career guidance, increase interest in the teaching profession, and develop skills in young people to take a responsible approach to their future.

At the end of the event, the students were thanked for their active participation.
